pay for them. As a consequence the congress went off quietly. Signor Bombacci, the Socialist leader, who is supposed to hold sway over his followers by the fascination of a magnificent full beard, was warned that his punishment would be a quick shave.

The Fascisti insist in their punishments that it shall be the leaders and their families who shall suffer. They say that the leaders always shirk their responsibility when trouble comes and the only way to break anarchy is by enforcing responsibility on those leaders. The result has been surprising, and the italian anarchist leaders are beginning to find out that they cannot escape punishment.
